

Be a hero to a kid at camp.

Pants required.

Brookhaven Retreat, a Christian summer camp near Tyler, TX, is looking for some heroes to serve on our summer ministry team from May 28 to August 15. On the SMT, you'll lead kids through our ropes course, lifeguard, clean, work in the dining room and dish room, facilitate games, and, in general, show kids what it looks like to serve Christ by serving others. Learn more about this opportunity at www.brookhavenretreat.org.

The Facts: Serving Christ on the Summer Ministry Team (SMT)

When: May 28-August 15

Where: 25 miles north of Tyler, TX, near the town of Hawkins

What I Do: Serve campers and fellow staff members. Typically, this includes lifeguarding at swim time each afternoon, facilitating low challenge course elements each morning, and working in the dish room and dining room during each meal. At the end of each camp, Summer Staff cleans and prepares Brookhaven for the next group.

Specifics:

- Summer Staff salary is $180 per week for first-year staff.
- While the camp is in operation 24/7, Summer Staff works five days a week and has two (rotating) days off.
- All meals and housing are provided for the entire summer.
- We provide lifeguard and ropes course certification during Training Week.
- Nightly activities solely for staff designed to unify, teach, and have fun and fellowship.

The Focus:

- 1) Service to others while exhibiting a humble, teachable spirit.
- 2) To know God so that you might glorify Him.
- 3) Growing in wisdom and stature while walking with God.
- 4) Forging lasting friendships of mutual trust with your peers.

Each night at Brookhaven, we have a different devotion or activity with the intent of knowing Christ and sharpening one another in our faith. These sessions of spiritual focus vary among large group studies, guys/girls studies, group prayer meetings, worship services, and private devotion times.

Come join us this summer. See what God can do!
